Police search for suspect in Līhu'e bank robbery

LĪHU'E – Kaua'i police are searching for the man responsible for robbing the First Hawaiian Bank on Rice Street in Līhu'e Thursday morning.

The suspect is described as a dark male, possibly in his fifties, and is roughly five feet eleven inches tall. He was wearing a white long-sleeved shirt and a light-colored cap at the time of the incident.

According to police, the man walked into the bank at approximately 10 a.m., passed a note to the teller stating that he had a gun and demanded money.

He then fled on foot in an unknown direction.

Police urge anyone with information to call 911 immediately. Anonymous tipsters can call CrimeStoppers, 246-8300.

CrimeStoppers is a non-profit organization that offers cash rewards of up to $1,000 to anyone furnishing anonymous information that leads to an arrest.
